Prelude	Give Thanks
Welcome	Rev. Doug
*Opening Hymn	#724 Sing to the Lord of Harvest Sing to the Lord of harvest, sing songs of love and praise; with joyful hearts and voices your alleluias raise. By him the rolling seasons in fruitful order move; sing to the Lord of harvest a joyous song of love. God makes the clouds rain goodness, the deserts bloom and spring, the hills leap up in gladness, the valleys laugh and sing. God fills them with his fullness, all things with large increase; he crowns the year with blessing, with plenty and with peace. Bring to this sacred altar the gifts his goodness gave, the golden sheaves of harvest, the souls Christ died to save. Your hearts lay down before him when at his feet you fall, and with your lives adore him who gave his life for all.

Announcements	Rev. Doug
*Closing Song	#483 Take Time to Be Holy Take time to be holy, speak oft with your Lord; abide in him always, and feed on his Word. Make friends of God's children; help those who are weak; forgetting in nothing His blessing to seek. Take time to be holy, the world rushes on; spend much time in secret with Jesus alone. By looking to Jesus, like Him you shall be; your friends in your conduct his likeness will see. Take time to be holy, let him be your guide, and run not before Him, whatever betide. In joy or in sorrow, still follow your Lord, and looking to Jesus, still trust in his Word.
Benediction	Rev. Doug

Spiritual Vitality

REV. DR. DOUG CEDERBERG | GPC DESIGNATED TERM PASTOR
NOVEMBER 10, 2021

After a year of being with you at GPC, I have a thought I'd like to share with you this week. I have been told again and again how weary you all are of the decade-old search for the right mission and vision statements, strategic plans, and effective marketing strategy. The mindset has been, "If only we get those things right, we will succeed in bringing GPC into a new chapter of life."

I have a differing idea, based on Zechariah 4:6. "This is the word of the Lord: Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, says the Lord of hosts." Therefore, it will not be by anything other than spiritual vitality that GPC or any other church will make it in the 21st century. For the past 30 years in ministry, I have seen churches pin their hopes on business tactics, in particular, from the field of marketing. Seldom, if ever, have I seen this actually bring new people and new life into a church, in a lasting way.

First, let me state an old proverb from the field of business marketing: No amount of marketing can save a bad product.

Second, this proverb is backed up by an old story from the field of business marketing: A dog food company had just come out with a new product a year earlier. The can was covered with a bright, cheery label that caught the shopper's eye in the grocery store. The TV commercial for the dog food had a catchy tune and touted its all-natural ingredients. The "face" of the product was the winner of the prestigious Westminster Dog Show. In spite of all of this, the product's sales were dismal and continually getting even worse.

The Vice President of Marketing of the company called his department together to discuss the problem. He chided his employees, "We have the snazziest label in the business. Our TV commercial is loved by viewers. Our supply chain is second to none. Why then are people not buying our dog food?" A market researcher sheepishly raised his hand to answer the boss, "The truth is, sir, the dogs won't eat it; they can't stand the taste." Yes indeed, no amount of marketing can save a bad product.

You can't outsmart a dog when it comes to what tastes good or not. Similarly, a church cannot outsmart the non-churchgoer with a lot of pizzazz, fancy mission statements, and clever marketing. The church is either a place where a person can experience God or not. And that will depend on whether the people already in the church are experiencing and finding joy in God or not.

Our "product" is a relationship with God through Jesus by the activity of the Holy Spirit in and among us. If the people of our church are not experiencing this for others to come and experience also, then no amount of all that business stuff will save a bad product.

It starts with faith that God makes a world of difference in your own life. Then, this enthusiasm is shared with others in the church, and thus it builds. It continues by being together in our experience of God each Sunday. And then it shows in our lives and makes an impression on people outside the church.

Now that we are resolved to keeping GPC going, it is only by the Spirit of God that GPC will be alive. Pray that God's spirit will come into your life and into the life of our church.

“Happy Thanksgiving”

DENNIS CHRISTO | GPC GOVERNING BOARD CHAIR
NOVEMBER 17, 2021

Dear Congregation Family and Friends,
Last Sunday’s church service in the Chapel for Veterans Day Commemoration, we enjoyed the musical Prelude, I Will Rise, by music Director Annie Arsenault, a special song You Say was sung by Choir Member Diane Morin, and with Pastor Doug’s inspiring message: “Let Us Draw Near to God with a Sincere Heart” to explain how God sustained, encouraged, nourished, strengthened, gave endurance to God’s people as explained in the Letter to the Hebrews, and He does so today with us.

We have been blessed to belong to our historical church, 126 years old, that serves the community by being a house of godly worship, with our Love in Action programs and outreach ministries serving others. We are Christians who put our faith into action. We worship as a people of God, assemble in His presence to speak with Him by prayers and song, and hear Him speak to us by word and sacrament. This is and has been, our living history here at GPC. Yes, we face challenges; we will address them. Be assured: WE ARE HERE TO STAY!!!

You all have received the letter and Financial Commitment Card from our Stewardship Team to start this year’s campaign program called: “Be a Vehicle of God’s Love.” Please take a few minutes to read the letter, and return the Declaration of Intention Form sometime in November. Your Pledges and Donations are essential for the Finance Team to prepare and execute our Annual Operating Budget. Please prepare, submit and be generous.

Our church is filled with people who Love and Serve God in many ways. Tori’s Testimonial affirmed what drew her to GPC several years ago and keeps her active and engaged today... Our Faith In Action!

In addition to your Financial Commitment, see what we do as a congregation through the many opportunities to give generously: Food Pantry, Clothing Drive, Thanksgiving Baskets, Angel Tree gifts for children, Hope for Housing support, Mustard Seed, and Worcester Fellowship to name a few, and underscore Tori’s testimony. Also, look forward to the Special Projects Team fundraisers: the Poinsettia and Christmas Wreaths Sales, and the Mini-Fair with some food options: soup, chili, and chicken salad sandwiches; eat-in or take-out.

Be Thankful,
BE BLESSED.

Just an added thought: Don’t see the world through the sad headline news... see the world through the people who surround you: family, friends, church members, and fellowship shared neighbors, co-workers. Therefore, write your own headlines and find your renewed spirit at GPC!

Blessings and Peace,

Dennis Christo
Chair, Governing Board.

Angel Tree Mission 2021

Drop off Saturday, Dec. 11 | 10 am -4 pm

Every Christmas we partner with Rainbow CDC to donate new toys and clothing that match children's "wish lists" to guarantee their Christmas is bright and memorable!

How to participate

You will find a "wish list" in Fisher Hall. This list is arranged by children's age, gender, and gift wish.

1. Select a child by writing your name right next to the child's number. Do NOT purchase any gift until you have received verification from the church that the child you've selected is available. Please do NOT wrap gifts! Rainbow CDC will take care of this.

If you cannot make it to the church, contact Janet Whittall at Teacup057@charter.net; Janet will let you know what child is available.

2. You can also donate money so the deacons can purchase the gift for you. Please send a check (approx $25.00) to Greendale People's Church, 25 Francis St., Worcester, MA 01606 or drop it off at GPC's secured mailbox on Francis Street. PLEASE BE SURE TO PUT ON YOUR CHECK THE CHILD'S NUMBER.

3. Drop off all unwrapped gifts at the church by Saturday, December 11 between 10 AM and 4 PM.
